How to Accept Your Financial Aid Offer through AppalNet

Appalachian's AppalNet Portal is the one-stop source for information and resources from the Appalachian State community. Students have direct access to all aspects of their accounts. Grades, registration information, targeted announcements, financial aid and account information, are all available to the student through the single portal. These resources allow students to personalize and manage their access to services across a broad spectrum including class registration, grades, degree audit management, billing and payments, parking, campus housing and other student activities.

After your financial aid package has been offered, you can access your award to view any possible scholarships and grants as well as web-accept all or a portion of offered loans. Follow these easy steps to view and take action on your financial aid offer.

1. Begin by going to www.appstate.edu where you will find the link to your AppalNet sign on.
2. Sign on to Appalnet

3. Click the Self Service option
4. Click on the Financial Aid tab and select the Financial aid Dashboard

5. Click on the “Award Offer” link
6. Select the applicable Aid Year

➢ For Example: 2024-2025 aid year includes Fall 2024, Spring 2025, and Summer 2025

7. Click on the “Award Offer” tab
8. Scroll to the bottom to accept your offer

 Only Loans need to be accepted, Grants and Scholarships are automatically accepted on your behalf.
