APPALACHIAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Student Consent to Release Information Form For Scholarship Eligibility/ Verification Purposes ONLY

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records. Education records include all student records and are considered confidential. Such records will not be released without written consent from the student. In accordance with FERPA, it is necessary for Appalachian State University to obtain written consent from the student to release any information to a third party.

Confidential Status established by the student through the Office of the Registrar overrides all release requests on file with Appalachian State. No information will be released while a student's record is marked Confidential with the Office of the Registrar, regardless of any signed release on file.
