How to Accept Your Financial Aid Award through AppalNet

Appalachian's AppalNet Portal is the one-stop source for information and resources from the Appalachian State community. Students have direct access to all aspects of their accounts. Grades, registration information, targeted announcements, financial aid and account information, are all available to the student through the single portal. These resources allow students to personalize and manage their access to services across a broad spectrum including class registration, grades, degree audit management, billing and payments, parking, campus housing and other student activities.

After your financial aid package has been awarded, you can access your award to view any possible scholarships and grants as well as web-accept all or a portion of offered loans. Follow these easy steps to view and take action on your financial aid award.
